

Gokhale Education Society's
R. H. Sapat College of Engineering,
Management Studies and Research,
Nashik

Department of MCA Engineering

Report on Devshayani Ashadhi Ekadashi in GESCOE

The Function about Devshayani Ashadi Ekadashi

On 16th July , Gokhale Education Society's R H Sapat College of Engineering Management Studies and Research Nashik, celebrated a Program of Ashadhi Ekadashi with great enthusiasm and devotion. Ashadhi Ekadashi holds significant cultural and spiritual importance in the Hindu calendar, marking a day of fasting and prayers dedicated to Lord Vishnu. The event was organized by the MCA Engineering Department of the college to foster spiritual awareness and cultural diversity among students. The Program was attended by the Principal Dr. S. S. Sane sir , Dr.Poonam Chaudhari mam HOD of MCA Department and other staff and faculty member of all Departments (Engineering) and also college students of MCA Engineering Departments under the SPPU University.

WELCOME Ceremony

Prof. P. A. Chaudhari, Convener & HOD (MCA Department) welcomed the Guest of honor Dr. S. S. Sane Sir (Chief Guest). She also expressed her heartfelt gratitude towards the guests. The program was started by Students of MCA Department Miss. Chetna Mahale and Miss. Asmita Thakare by sung a beautiful Abhang. And Mr.Kunal Mitke and Mr. Sarthak Deshpandhe sung a devotional song which is one of the best part of the program. As part of the educational aspect of the event, a special lecture series was organized by invited faculty. They spoke about the significance of Aashadhi Ekadashi, its historical context, and the spiritual practices associated with the day. The Principal Dr. Sane sir gave us a Valuable Speech about the Ashadhi Ekadashi.

OUTCOME

The Aashadhi Ekadashi program at GESCOE' RHSCOE was a resounding success, bringing together students, faculty, and the community to celebrate and cherish our cultural heritage. It provided a platform for spiritual enrichment, cultural exchange, and learning. The organizing committee received positive feedback from attendees, highlighting the event's impact in promoting cultural awareness and fostering a sense of unity.